3RD ANNUAL BETHEL WINTER CARNIVAL THIS WEEK END

At a meeting at the Norseman Inn Tuesday evening final plans were made for the forth-coming Bethel Winter Carnival week-end.

The slam bang week end will start with a spaghetti supper at the American Legion Hall.

Next at seven o'clock, the bonfires atop both ski areas and Doc Hudson "chomping at the bit" to get his firework display underway. At eight-thirty the ski movies and coronation at Odeon Hall with five of the Bethel area's busy and attractive girls promoting tickets for the event.

Saturday at 11:30 a. m. family races and costume parades at both ski areas will more than liven up things.

The Teen Age Snow Flake Frolic with free admission under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Raynes promises fun for the kids at Crescent Park School, Saturday evening at 7:30.

Meanwhile at 8:30 Saturday night the adults will be stomping to the music of Malcolm Smith at the William Bingham Gym. Tickets can be bought at the door. The informal atmosphere highlighted with many door prizes—large decorative ski posters from many ski areas will create an evening of fun for the folks.

Sunday will be a rise and shine early day with Church services at 7:45 at both areas followed by free pancake and sausage breakfasts.

The family race runoffs at Mt. Abram at 10 a. m. will be fun to watch.

At 11 a. m. Louis Sargent and his crew will have parked cars on the special parking areas being set up at the Bill Chapman farm and snowmobile rally will be a go-go reality. The trophies are unbelievable and this will be a fun event for the whole family—not only those who participate. A hot dog concession will be set up at the location.

HONORED ON 25th ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Smith were guests of honor at a party to observe of their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heath in Lovell. They received many lovely gifts. Those attending included the guests of honor, the host and hostess, Barbara Mallett, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lovejoy, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Springer.

BETHEL ELECTION — TOWN MEETING MONDAY, MARCH 6

The polls will be open at the Bethel Fire Station next Monday, March 6, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. for balloting in the election of local officers. Contests this year are for: selectman and assessor for three years, Harold Clukey and Rodney Eames; directors of Maine School Administrative District #44, Mrs. Musa S. Brown, Theodore Chadbourne and Robert Jackson. Bethel is entitled to elect two school directors in this election. Mrs. Violet Bennett has no opposition for the office of Town Clerk.

In the race for the selectman's post, Mr. Eames, an employee of the Portland Pipeline Corp., is seeking re-election to a second three-year stint on the board, while Mr. Clukey, proprietor of Bosserman's Pharmacy, is making his initial try for town office.

In the three-way race for two positions on the board of school directors, Mr. Chadbourne, the incumbent, is seeking election to a three year term. Previous to the formation of S. A. D. #44 in August of 1965 he had served as a member of the Bethel School Committee for several years. Mrs. Brown has been employed in the school lunch program in Bethel, and has worked part-time in the office of the Bethel Citizen. Mr. Jackson is the pastor of the Bethel Church of the Nazarene and has served as a substitute teacher in the S. A. D. #44 schools.

At the business meeting starting at 8 p. m., the voters will act on the remaining 56 articles of the warrant for the annual meeting.

While many of the articles appear to be routine and the recommendations of the local budget committee are usually adopted, the voters are free to decrease or increase appropriations of the accounts if in their judgment such changes are necessary.

Article 12 should engender considerable discussion as it would, if passed favorably, replace existing Bethel Zoning Ordinances with an entirely new code. A public hearing on this proposed ordinance was held on Feb. 29 with a small attendance due to a stormy night and/or public apathy. (Maps of the proposed areas in town are shown on pages six and seven.)

The article on the acceptance of the Bethel Water District was included with the hope that action would be possible at the annual meeting, but it appears that a decision on this can not be made. Probably action on this item will have to be made at a special meeting later on in the year.

In other articles Bethel town officers seek permission of the voters to appoint a Tree Warden and an Electrical Inspector, and to have the authority to convey a part of the town's real estate from the Town Garage to a private owner.

Extension of the sewer line on Paradise Road is caught under Article 52. Prior natural drainage in that area makes the use of septic tanks difficult.

Permission of the town to remove the Bethel Air Park is a carry-over of the late Lt. Col. Sidney Dyke (USAF Ret.) will be sought. Col. Dyke lost his life in

NEWS COMMENTATOR TO SPEAK AT FARM AND HOME BANQUET, ORONO, MARCH 28

An analysis of seven leaders who have shaped the world will be given by veteran news commentator Paul Niven at the annual Farm and Home Week banquet on the University of Maine campus in Orono on Tuesday, March 28.

Mr. Niven, who was with CBS for 18 years before joining the National Educational Television Network, will recount anecdotes and analyze the personalities of Presidents Johnson, Kennedy, Eisenhower and Truman, Winston Churchill, Nikita Khrushchev, and former Vice President Nixon.

Sharing the speaking program with Mr. Niven at the 6:30 p. m. banquet in the West Commons will be Gov. Kenneth M. Curtis and U. of M. President Edwin Young.

A Brunswick native, Mr. Niven has covered the top news stories of the past two decades from the important news centers of the world: Washington, Moscow, London, Paris and Saigon.

He covered the American tours of Soviet Premier Khrushchev and Deputy Premiers Mikoyan and Kozlov. He interviewed President Kennedy aboard his campaign plane; Nixon aboard a Soviet boat on a Siberian lake during his visit to Russia; and Khrushchev at diplomatic receptions in Moscow.

Niven once sat at the feet of Winston Churchill and conducted an interview using one of the earliest tape recorders; and he climbed to the top of a Rangoon pagoda in his bare feet to interview Premier U Nu of Burma for Edward R. Murrow's "See It Now" program.

While serving as chief of the Moscow Bureau of CBS News in 1950 Niven was expelled from the Soviet Union when Red authorities took exception to a CBS dramatic program dealing with the death of Stalin. He returned the next year to cover Nixon's tour.

He later covered the Kennedy-Nixon presidential campaign and participated in one of their historic debates. He reported from the White House when Kennedy was assassinated and from the LBJ ranch in Texas on Christmas day a month later.

In 1960 Mr. Niven became the first full-time correspondent from NET. His first NET series, "The President's Men," consisted of interviews with members of the President's cabinet and staff. The series was widely acclaimed. Newsweek called it the "best of the three networks" and "The success of the series is due in large measure to Niven's interviewing technique."

On our crash in Northwest Bethel last April he had long been active in local aviation and had recently been manager of the local field.

An Eastern Musical Festival will be held Palm Sunday, March 19, at the Congregational Church. The combined choirs are from five churches: West Bethel, Locke Mills, Congregational, Catholic and Methodist.

DIRECTORS ACCEPT PORTLAND FIRM'S BID TO BUILD SCHOOL

At their meeting held at Crescent Park School, Bethel, on Tuesday evening the Directors of Maine School Administrative District #44 voted to accept the bid of Brown Construction Inc., of Portland for the construction of the new junior-senior high school.

The original base bid submitted on Feb. 15 by the Brown firm was $1,683,600. By substituting sub-contractors the adjusted base bid of the firm was $1,680,163. Adopting the changes in the project recommended by the Building Committee, the Directors accepted a total bid for the project which includes an elevator in the building and the three alternates submitted with the original bid earlier in the month. The total accepted bid amounts to $1,743,063.

The elevator is included at $10,700 while the adopted alternates are: kitchen equipment, $50,500; folding partition in gymnasium, $13,800; canopy over bus platform, $14,600.

As of Feb. 28 the construction budget of Telstar Regional High School is as follows:

General contract (including disposal system)	$1,743,063.
Equipment	2,500
Architects fees	87,000
Site cost	16,000
Site development	90,000
Water	9,000
Athletic fields	13,000
Consultants fees	20,000
Contingency	20,437
Resources	$2,220,000
Subsidy	$ 991,000
Bond issue	1,050,000
Consultants' fees	20,000
Raised 1965-1966	31,000
Federal funds	68,000
Balance (deficit)	62,000

The decision by the Directors was to table any action that might be necessary to finance the balance of $62,000 until some future date.

In other matters considered at the meeting the Personnel Committee submitted recommendations for the pay schedule of extra-curricular activities.

Supervisors' salaries shall be set by the Board on the recommendation of the Superintendent. Principals shall be on the instructional salary schedule with extra pay as follows: five or fewer teachers, 5% over scheduled salary; six through ten teachers, 10% additional; 11 or more teachers, 15% additional. Head teachers in schools of less than five teachers shall be paid $169 more than regular salaries in schools with over five teachers, head

Red Perham has been on three more mountain snowshoe trips. On Feb. 18th he joined the Portland Chapter A. M. C. over the peaks of Peaked Mt., White Mt., and Phillips Mt. in the North Sebago Region. On Sunday, Feb. 19 he spent five hours on snowshoes up in the Crawford Notch-Mt. Clinton area where a mile away to the south Mt. Jackson reared its bald head. On Saturday, Feb. 25, he was up in Pinkham Notch with the New Hampshire "Fire eaters". The air was frigid around the vicinity of A. M. C. Hut, undoubtedly due to the reading of 20 below at the summit of Mt. Washington and a 60 mile an hour gale blowing. With 18 inches of new snow in the mountains, the snowshoe trip along Tuckerman Trail and up Lions Head proved an uphill climb every inch of the way.

Lettie Ford spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Hattie Curtis. Mrs. Norman Hill Jr. and family returned to her home in Massachusetts Sunday.

SEEMS LIKE POOR SUBSTITUTE

There has been much discussion lately of the mental health needs, not only of our adult population, but of our so-called teen-agers.

The theory is advanced that the teen-agers do not exist in nature; that they are physically mature but economically and socially immature; that in the old days, they were turned on their own and did not feel subject to family regimentation.

Whether this notion of lack of identification or responsibility leads youngsters to show resentment in order to build status and independence is now a question. Whether mental hospital and psychiatric treatment are the answer is another question.

Somewhere along the line our schools, colleges and parents should shoulder the job of showing young people that they have very definite responsibilities and are identified with every phase of family life and government. They can be shown that on them rests the responsibility for their own and the nation's future. In their far-ranging activities, it looks as if parents and schools have neglected the basic task of providing our youngsters with an understanding of the rights and responsibilities of citizenship.

CHECK LIGHTS FOR SAFETY —SAYS SAFETY COMMITTEE

A check of the family car's lighting system today may prevent a wreck tomorrow, according to an announcement by the Maine Highway Safety Safety Committee.

It's the wise motorist who takes time to check his rear and front lamps, and especially the turn signals. Such quick inspections should be done periodically. Breakage, and short circuits, can occur within the space of one short trip, the announcement states.

Other drivers rely on being alerted to your intentions to pass or make other maneuvers by your turn signals and brake lights. If equipment is defective, both you and the other drivers are in danger without being aware of it until it's often too late to avoid trouble.

LEARNED SERVICES

Services for Mrs. Bewie S. Learned were held from the Greenleaf funeral home, Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 22, with Rev. Clifford Laws officiating. Bearers were George Merrill, Warren M. Powers, Paul W. Wright and Bernard L. Powers. Entombment was at Riverside Cemetery with burial in the spring at the Powers Cemetery, Newry.

BERNARD BROOKS

BETHEL AUXILIARY GIVES EQUIPMENT TO RUMFORD HOSPITAL

Bethel Auxiliary members have donated equipment at a cost in excess of $200 to Rumford Community Hospital's newest department, the 14 bed pediatric unit. This equipment includes a portable television, table and chair set, and a maple rocker for nurses to soothe the small children.

The hospital's new children's division opened last month to meet the growing needs of the community. It is entirely separate from other patient sections and is staffed around the clock with nurses and aides having special aptitudes for this assignment.

Mrs. Karen Bouthot, R. N., unit supervisor, a 1964 graduate of Mercy Hospital, Portland, received special training both in Washington and in California in large children's hospitals. She is highly qualified for the position as supervisor of this new unit. Miss Bouthot has weekly conferences with her personnel to teach them the special techniques of working with children.

An organized play program is being planned for the growth and development of the children and to help them enjoy their hospital stay. Placed with companions their own age, the new children's unit allows the hospital to achieve a different atmosphere more conducive to the welfare of children.

Bethel Auxiliary members are presently considering sponsorship of other pediatric needs. It has been the goal of the ladies to direct their assistance to the new maternity and maternity department. With the advent of the new children's unit, the community need became much greater in pediatrics. The high interest of these ladies in sponsoring projects for children has been shifted to this area.

Mr. Loubler, administrator, expressed gratitude to this active Bethel Unit of the Auxiliary for their continued efforts and support on behalf of the hospital.

Check out your vehicle today and make certain you will be well-lighted and sighted, advises the Safety Committee.

The Week in Oxford County

Dr. Peter B. Aucoin, Rumford, has been appointed to the board of directors of the Oxford County Mental Health Association. Dr. Aucoin fills the vacancy of Dr. Charles M. Smith of Dixfield, who is now in Boston, Mass., furthering his studies as an orthopedic surgeon. Mrs. Charles F. Fisher, East Rumford, will replace George E. Prentiss, who resigned from the board.

Oxford Hills High School held its first session in their new building on Monday. School lunch was served in the new cafeteria.

The Bowdoin College Glee Club, Chapel Choir and Medley-Tempesters presented a concert, Tuesday evening, at the Oxford Hills High School auditorium. The concert was under the direction of Professor Robert K. Beckwith.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Grover and family in Oxford was destroyed by fire Monday evening. Loss was estimated between $12,000 and $15,000. Firemen from Oxford and Norway fought the blaze in freezing cold and a high wind. Some furniture and personal items were saved. Five beagle hounds were reported killed by the fire.

Arthur N. Gouin, Jr., executive director of the Oxford County Economic Opportunity Council has quit his job. He cited several reasons among them red tape, working conditions and politics. He will leave the $10,000 a year job March 10 and will join the extension service.

Breaks into two unoccupied homes in the West Peru area were being investigated the first of the week by the Sheriff's Department. Officials reported many small items were taken from the houses and furniture damaged to an estimated amount of several hundred dollars. The houses reportedly are the property of Euclid LeBlanc of Lynn, Mass.

Worthley Pond and its shoreline in Peru were declared a critical area by the Maine Board of Pesticide Control on Friday. The use of DDT in any form was banned. The ban applies to the surface of the pond and the surrounding land area to a perimeter of 500 feet on all sides. The pond is about two miles long. There are many summer cottages on the shore.
